ILLINOIS BRASS BAND TIMING FOR PERFORMANCE: 29:03

COMMENTS:

CONTEST MUSIC
 Bram Gay: 1) Definition, detail, clarity. Various small accidents, of course. These things happen. 2) As before! 3) I like it. [47]
 James Hile: 1) Minor intonation. Individual players--low brass--overplaying and sticking out at ff. Minor attack problems. 2) Very exposed--generally very good intonation on difficult passages. Some wonderful balances. 3) Minor rhythmic problems that correct. Great attention. [48]
 Ray Tizzard: Wonderful exuberant performance! Lots of good energy. Very good solo passage work! [48]

JAZZ
 Bram Gay: This is going well! It's a work for which I have a very big dislike--not because of the idiom but because I do not enjoy really loud noises these days. But this performance is very convincing. You've sold the piece to me. I'll tell PW. [49]
 James Hile: Wonderful technical display. Only minor problems. Group well prepared and plays with so much control. Great individual players and great soloists. [47]
 Ray Tizzard: Very impressive performance; really captured the spirit of the work! All sections met the demands placed on them! Thank you for these well prepared performances! [47]
